Notice,

To Wheelwrights, Blacksmiths, Tanners, Harness-Makers, Saddlers, Hatters, &c.

BELIEVING as I do, that PROVIDENCE, at Fairfax Court-House, would be a suitable situation for mechanics of the above description. I offer to such, lots in that village for sale, on ground rent for ever—will build and furnish suitable houses and rent to them, or furnish brick to them to build with; and invite any who feel disposed to settle there, for the purpose of carrying on their respective trades to advantage, to come and view the situation. It is a very public place, the centre of the county, where the superior and county courts are held. The Little River Turnpike Road passes through this little town from Alexandria westward, and where all the public meetings for the county, &c. are held; and where trades of the aforesaid description being carried on, would meet with great encouragement, and be a public convenience to the country around. No situation can be more healthy—good water, and fire wood cheap. Mechanics of the above description must generally depend on the country people, farmers, &c. to be their customers. Here they would be in a convenient situation for all the purposes. I invite a call, and view for themselves. I would also furnish lots adjacent, from one to five acres each, for cultivation, pasture, &c. on moderate terms; all of which can be shown, and terms made known, on application to RICH'D. RATCLIFFE, Fairfax Court-House, Va.

Missouri and Illinois Bounty Lands

THE subscriber has now for sale a number of the most valuable tracts, in both of those rich and improving bodies of lands, and can supply applicants with any number they may wish, and in any part of either territory. Every person who visits the Western Country, particularly those who intend settling there, should take with them a few quarter sections of those lands; every man who has a young and growing family, and can spare a few hundred dollars, should not miss the present opportunity of getting some of those lands; as it will insure to his children a greater certainty than any other investment he can possibly make for their benefit.—From the immense emigration to both Illinois and Missouri, particularly to the military lands, it is certain there must be a great rise in the price very soon, and those who miss the present opportunity, will never again have a chance to do so well. The patents will be sold very low, for cash, good notes or bonds at short dates, or bank stock in the Central Bank of Georgetown and Washington, and the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank of Georgetown. As I am a large dealer in Military Bounty Lands, I can supply any number that may be required.

Please to apply at my Exchange Banking House, Bridge street, Georgetown.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1819

To the people of Alexandria:

The result of the town meeting held in December last, for the purpose of taking into consideration the expediency of petitioning congress to recede us to the state of Virginia, was witnessed by me with the deepest mortification—a mortification as great, I thought, as any event could inflict, until I learned that in opposition to the almost unanimous recommendation of the merchants of Alexandria, the president had appointed a citizen of Virginia to be our collector. But ought we to complain that the executive branch of the government of the United States has treated without disregard our recommendation? Are we not slaves? and is not freedom superior to slavery? Ought not those to govern, who value as they should the rights of freemen—men who are contented to live deprived of every political right? These are questions we ought to ask ourselves.

Where now is the force of those arguments which in December last were urged with so much warmth, and received as the offspring of oracular wisdom! We have been "weighed in the balance, and found wanting." The gentleman who has received the appointment is a very respectable individual certainly: but where is that overwhelming weight of character, where that universally acknowledged title to his country's patronage and support, which should authorise the perfect disregard which the president has shown to the almost unanimous wish of all those with whom the collector is to transact business, and among whom he is to reside? It is not to be found!

Will any thinking, well instructed man, suffer himself to be persuaded that, if Alexandria formed an integral part of Virginia, influencing (as in that case she would unquestionably do) in a great measure, the feelings and opinions of a considerable portion of that commonwealth, the government of the United States would consider as nothing the expressed wishes of the whole body of her merchants and most influencial men?

I fancy it will be conceded such would not be the case:—yet it seems difficult to say the president did wrong in disregarding the opinions and feelings of men who could make such a decision as we did in town-meeting. We had rather be slaves (and without influence of any sort, of course) than enjoy freedom with its consequent power, if that enjoyment bring with it a possible increase of taxation, and the necessity of sending five or six records in a year to the town of Fredericksburg for ultimate adjudication. If such be our fixed resolution, should we not submit with alacrity, and endure with patience, when our master decides, without any regard to what we think and feel? 'Tis a matter, to be sure, not of our own choosing, and to us, at least, perfectly irresponsible.

We ought to be consistent, "as in duty bound," and not let a single murmur of discontent ruffle the tranquillity of our submission—or boldly claim a participation in the rights and interests of the state and general governments.

Are we not a political anomaly in Anglo-America? a sort of non-descripts—neither meat nor fish! Who supports us? Who feels for us? Who patronizes us? Where is our public spirit? No government money is spent among us—no government feels for or patronizes us. And that we have no public spirit, will not the world believe, if we longer submit to our present political nonentity? Let us awake, and by a distinct proclamation of our wishes, and estimation of ourselves, show both to the general and state governments that we will not in future deserve to be treated as nothing.

ONE OF THE PEOPLE.

[The appointment of collector has not been officially promulgated. Our correspondent, at the time of handing us his communication, assured us that the appointment had been made. Subsequent reports do not confirm his assertions. His remarks are certainly premature.] Ed. Gazette.

The report of the departure of Mr. Cobbett in the ship Hector, is contradicted

THE TRUE DIGNITY OF MAN.

Pascal, in his 'Thoughts,' says that 'the dignity of man consists in his power of thinking; that it is the essence of his nature, and that he should therefore endeavor to think always rightly.' Dr. Johnson, in a letter to Miss Susan Thrale, thus nobly dilates and enforces Pascal's observation:

'Life, to be worthy of a rational being, must be always in a state of progression—we must always purpose to do more and better than in time past. The mind is enlarged and elevated by mere purposes though they end as they begin, by airy contemplation; we compare and judge though we do not practice.'

ALEXANDRIA:

MONDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 4,

A writer in the Leesburg Washingtonian informs that the new turnpike road to this place and Georgetown, is rapidly progressing. The writer suggests many natural obstacles to the completion of the road, in the course now marked out, and invites consideration to a course by Goose Creek Bridge direct to Difficult Run Bridge, and from thence to Alexandria. The objections urged are very reasonable, and those of our citizens who are particularly interested may do well to give them some attention.

Mr. David Cooper, of Georgia, announces in the Augusta Advertiser, that he has discovered means to prevent the disease called rot in cotton. He speaks with great confidence, and proposes communicating the secret to farmers for stipulated prices.

On Thursday last, the flags at the Observatory and of the shipping generally, in Baltimore, were displayed at half mast, as a testimony of respect for the late Commodore Perry.

It is said that Brevet Major General E. W. RIPLEY has tendered to the government the resignation of his commistion of a Brigadier General in the Army of the United States, with the intention of devoting his attention to civil pursuits. [Nat. Int.

We find from the very favorable reports of the Board of Health for the last 3 days, (says the New-York Daily Advertiser of September 30) that some persons already begin to talk of returning to their stores and houses. We sincerely hope that the recommendations of the board of health, respecting intercourse with the district where the fever commenced, may be strictly regarded. Within a very short time, under the blessings of Providence, there will be no occasion for alarm. A few days can make but little difference in business concerns, and men of discretion and candor will certainly consent to suspend their intercourse with that district, until it is considered safe by the public authorities.

MISSISSIPPI.

George Poindexter is elected Governor of the state of Mississippi, to succeed David Holmes, who declined a re-election.

Christopher Rankin is elected Representative in Congress, to succeed G. Poindexter.

The opposing candidate for Governor was Thomas Hinds; for Representative in Congress, Cowles Meade

The Philadelphia Franklin Gazette says, seventy-five persons were buried in this city last week. Three of them are reported to have died of the malignant fever: yet we do not find that there is any alarm in town, nor can we learn that any particular neighborhood is infected. If the warm and heavy weather should continue much longer, our city can hardly expect to remain free from the disease which has produced so much alarm in New-York and Baltimore, and so much mortality in one section of the latter place. Our hope is, that the frost will commence early in October, and prevent the fever from extending. The occasional cases which have occurred are not considered any cause of serious apprehension.

The Petersburg Intelligencer speaks with astonishment of an unfounded report which has gone abroad through the country, that the Yellow Fever has broken out in that town.—Norfolk then is not alone the sport of idle rumor.—We sincerely wish that Petersburg may never furnish a better foundation for such reports than Norfolk has done for a number of years past. [Norfolk Herald.

NORTH CAROLINA BANKS.

These institutions, it is confidently asserted, will resume cash payments on or about the 1st of November. The effect of this contemplated measure is already visible in the reduction of the discount on their notes, which are now exchanged by the brokers at from 8 to 10 per cent.—and there is no hesitation amongst the merchants and storekeepers in taking them for goods without any discount. [Ibid.

BANK OF THE UNITED STATES.

We understand that the Board of Directors of the Bank of the United States, and it gives us infinite satisfaction to be able to state it, have been diligently occupied during the whole of last week in devising measures calculated to promote the interest of the institution and the prosperity of the country;—Among those measures, we learn, that a facility will be given to Exchange operations, between the parent bank and its branches, as far as practicable.

We also are informed that the different Branch Notes of five dollars denomination, will be received and paid indiscriminately at the parent Bank, and at all its Branches, without any regard to the places where they are made payable.. [Philadelphia Gaz.

FROM HAVANA.

By the brig Hope, which arrived at New-York on the 29th ult. the editors of the New-York Daily Advertiser have received the following letter from their attentive correspondent at Havana, dated the 6th instant:

On the 29th of August, at 6 o'clock in the morning, the Moro Castle gave the signal of a Spanish convoy, and a few minutes after it proved to be the Sabine frigate, with twelve transports from Cadiz, with the new Governor, his excellency Don Juan Manuel Cagigal, and 3000 troops, the best ever seen in this quarter.

The arrival of those troops and a new governor was unexpected, and has given great room for political matters. A war with the United States is now considered positive—you may assert it. I have good reason to speak in this way. All the preparatives in our fortifications are corroborative of this opinion. I have seen this morning an order written to Don Jose Roca y Juan, commander of the Cabancas, in which the governor says, among other things, "You will not lose a minute in putting the garrison in the best state of defence, for which I make you responsible, in the name of the king, my master; and your lordship will immediately send off all the women that occupies the cells of the castle, for which I send the bearer of this, my aid-de camp, Don Miguel Moliner."

The vessels composing the convoy have on board a sufficient number of troops to replace those of this island and its dependencies.

Since receiving the above, we have conversed with a respectable merchant, who has received letters to the 14th inst. 8 days later, which state that the transports mentioned in the above article are up for freight on their return for Europe, in consequence of which freight was very low.

Letters received from Havana some time since, state, that troops were expected out from Spain, which had been ordered in consequence of the insurrection of the negroes near St. Jago, which has been much more serious than has been represented.

The late governor is a man of great wealth and independence, and has long petitioned for leave to return to Spain.

LATEST FROM ENGLAND.

The ship Mary and Susan, captain Curtis, has arrived at this place, with London papers to the 23d, and Liverpool to the 25th ult. Excepting on the subject of the Manchester riots, their contents are uninteresting; but on this fruitful theme of political speculation, they are literally overburthened; and present as many aspects of the present, and anticipations of the future peace and safety of the country, as there are hues in the rainbow. On one side, the meeting of the populace, though multifarious, is described as in the highest degree orderly and decorous, and the attack upon them to have been wanton and unnecessary. The people received the different military corps with cheering, until their sabres informed them, that their visit was hostile. On the other hand the marching in regiments under regular leaders, the numerous banners with their inscriptions, the call of several persons to the people to lock their arms fast together round the hustings—and other circumstances indicated any thing but a peaceable meeting. And the riot act having, according to the ministerial papers, been twice read—the magistrates consulted together, and issued a warrant to arrest Hunt. The officers and cavalry who were appointed to execute it, were assailed by heavy vollies of stones and shouts, and they did not use their sabres, until compelled to do it for self defence. Not a single shot was fired by the military.—There were 100,000 persons within view.

On Tuesday evening, a large and riotous mob assembled in Oldham, and the riot act was read to them—but they were dispersed by the military. On Wednesday, not the least disturbance took place in Manchester or Salford. Cheerfulness and confidence appeared to be restored; but a notice was issued to the inhabitants by the magistrates, requesting them not to be out of their own houses after nine o'clock at night. There is a list of thirty persons very much hurt who were lodged in the infirmary, of whom two had died, and forty out patients who were dressed there. The thanks of the magistrates of Manchester, to Col. L'Estrange and the officers and men under his command, have been given, for the energy and humanity they displayed in their conduct. The same vote was passed in favor of Maj. Trafford of the Lancaster and Salford Yeomanry Cavalry, for their exemplary conduct, and to numerous other persons. But the public mind is still in a violent state of agitation.

SOUTH AMERICA.

A West-Indian paper has the following judicious comments on the subject of the revolution which is now convulsing the southern section of the American continent:

The southern section of the western hemisphere is rising to a state of no inconsiderable importance. Yet still its general destiny is not to be immediately affected by the buccaneering excursions of a M'Gregor, an Aury, a Cochrane, an Artigas, a Bolivar, or a Brion; nor is its independence likely to be established under the auspices of any other rapacious plunderer. Is it at all probable that the seeds of civilization are to be scattered over the land from the mouth of a cannon? or that principles of morality are to be thrust into the hearts of the people, upon the point of a sword?—No; before happiness and prosperity smile upon those benighted regions, the sword must be beaten into a plough-share, and the spear be transformed to a pruning-hook; pistols must serve only for candle moulds—halberts, and cannon balls used for sinkers to fishing seines; or, at any rate, these instruments of destruction must not serve much more violent purposes, before the regeneration of South-America can fully crown the hopes and expectations of the sound politician and reasonable philanthropist.—Ploughs, hoes, harrows, printing presses, spelling books, bibles, and newspapers, are the only sure indications of human improvement, of moral and political happiness, in almost any part of the world. Agriculture was the first employment given to man by his Maker; and gardens must bloom before virtue blossoms, and pensive virtue, "after cultivating a garden, must find time to aspire to that state where flowers fade no more!"

Extract of a letter to a gentleman in New-York, dated Sheffield, (Eng.) Aug. 10.

"We have had a strange massacre here amongst the canine race. There has been about one thousand destroyed already, and they are killing every day in the pinfold.—There is a subscription entered into by the gentlemen of the town to destroy them. Mr. Rawson has given 20 guineas, and will give more he says. They give for every dog bro't in as much as 4 shillings a piece. It is supposed by the faculty here that a plague has got among them, as there have been a great many people bit by some, supposed mad.—A great many children have died in consequence of being bitten. Mr. Raugham had a fine boy bit by one, which caused his death."

Letter to the editor of the Village Record.

"Last week I returned from a visit to Montreal, and was highly gratified with the novelties to an American's eyes, which that city affords—The buildings, the manners of the people, the religion, &c. were all very different from any thing which I had been accustomed to. I saw the ceremonies of a catholic funeral, visited two convents of nuns, and the chapel and apartments of an ancient college of Jesuitical friars. The nuns generally appeared cheerful and happy—but I should be much better satisfied with regard to their actual enjoyment, if I could be an invisible witness of their actions. They looked almost all of them past 30 and I did not see one who made me sigh and wish she was not confined within the cloister.—Miss A——, the daughter of E—— A——, the revolutionary general, was the most interesting woman I saw: she had been there about seven years, and appears to be very much beloved by the holy sisterhood.

"The country about Montreal, is very beautiful. The landscape from the mountain back of the city, surpasses in variety and beauty of scenery any thing which I have ever before witnessed. The St. Lawrence is there a majestic river, and every other feature in the prospect, is on a grand and extensive scale. The roofs of many buildings in the city are covered with bright tin, which give the place a very brilliant appearance at a little distance, on a clear sun shining day."

BIBLE SOCIETIES.

Extract from a letter of the Hon. ELIAS BOUDINOT, L. L. D. President of the American Bible Society, dated Burlington, Feb. 24, 1819.

Having suffered during another month a pretty close confinement to my bed and room; by the will of God, I gratefully acknowledge his undeserved mercy in giving me the expectations of sitting up, and looking a little about me. Indeed I should not have attempted to dictate this letter, had it not been for the receipt of one from a female correspondent, with an Indian name in the Delaware language, which has roused both mind and body to reflections, considerations, and conclusions, that it is easier to conceive than express. I know not what you my beloved brethren in the Gospel cause may think of it. I must confess myself both honored and gratified by this extraordinary and worthy correspondent. I enclose an exact copy of the letter, with the 100 dollars enclosed.—May her mite tend to the overflowing of the Lord's treasury, and add to the fund preparing for the enlightening and instructing this remnant of the people of God; for though I may be mistaken, and they may not be of the chosen race of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, yet they are of Gentile nations, who have exceeding great and precious promises of being called in this latter day to the fold of Christ's flock. When you read this letter, you will have all the knowledge of the circumstances attending the agreeable business, that I have. When you lay it before the board of my worthy fellow laborers in the Lord's vineyard, I am sure they will feel their gratitude increased, that they are found worthy to be husbandmen in their master's service.

February 1st, 1819.

DEAR SIR—My heart and eyes are gladdened with a sight long desired—a specimen of the translation of the Scriptures into the language of our western neighbors; and from the impulse of congenial feeling, I send you congratulations.

I rejoice with you;—with you, I raise my soul in grateful adoration to Him, who cl
"the heathen for his inheritance, and uttermost parts of the earth for his pos sion!"

Emigrating early to the West, I forme sort of acquaintance with several ladie
many of whom I respected as men of un standing: and I have often heard them ment the distressing situation of their co
try—the ungenerous avarice of the wh and the ungovernable passions of their people!

About the year 1800, in the month of Jun near the middle of the day, as I sat at wo
in the early parlour at L——, I command
a view of the smooth green yard, shad from the fervor of the sun by the deepen boughs of two luxuriant weeping willow which two years care had brought to a st of sentimental perfection. The harmony the scene so perfectly accorded with the fee ings of my heart, that in that moment, I perienced a tranquil delusive happiness.
ceased to think that, in all the earth, the
was a human being less happy than myself!

This mental rest was interrupted by th entrance of two strangers of uncommon ine rest in my feelings. The first was my o friend, the Delaware chief, the Great Bock on-jai-hai-lus. I rose to meet him with cord al welcome. After shaking my hand, he said
"Le-na-pah-quay," (a name given me by the Delaware Indians) "this is my friend king Ka-box-ki." They took their seats, and informed me they called for the purpose o taking dinner with me, (having made the en gagement with my husband in the city.)
They were on their return from seeing the great father, as they called the President.

At dinner they received my attentions a easy as persons of good breeding do, in those circles where good breeding excludes every useless ceremony.

King Ka-box-ki was silent; when he spoke it was in the Delaware tongue; he desired his friend to tell me he could not speak En glish. Bock-on-jai-hai-lus was more commu nicative; he informed me the President ha said they must improve their ground—the young men must learn to plough—their young women must learn to spin. He seemed dejec ed, but noble and animated in his whole de portment. While we sat at the table, after the cloth was removed, and after some con versation, he said, "Le na-pa-quay we no go."—And when shall I see you again, Bock on-jai-hai-lus?" said I. "Me old," said he
"me soon lie down," spreading his ha
with low horizontal motion; then raising h eyes to heaven and extending his hand to wards me with a devout expression, he ad ded, (with an effusion of feeling—I have ne ver seen one more expressive—) 'but w shall meet with Jesus!'—With sympathet ardor and Christian love, I took his hand, in quiring with rapture, "Bock-on-jai-lus you know Jesus?" He answered, with firm ness, 'Me know Jesus—me love Jesus!" the rising from the table, they shook hands, so lemnly saying "FAREWELL!"

My eyes followed their venerable figure till the door closed from my view, for the last time in this world, the great Bock-o jai-hai-lus, and his friend Ka-box-ki.

The interview, so truly sublime, interes
ed me more tenderly to a nation of strangers than I could have experienced from any oth circumstance, and brought to my heart, wi sweet conviction of its efficacy, 'in Chris Jesus there is neither male, nor female, Bar barian, Scythian, bond, nor free!'

Often has my heart reverted, with mu tender recollection, to this scene! often a the sincerity of my soul, have I wished i might be in my power to contribute my mi towards some favorable prospect of their re ligious improvement; for I firmly believ
they are vessels of mercy. And now my dea Sir, that my faith may not be dead, "bein alone," I commit into your hand, as President of the American Bible Society, and the friend of humanity, one hundred dollars, for the department, (particularly) of the Delawar translation.—With sentiments of high re spect, I am, dear Sir, your sister,

LE-NA-PAH-QUAY.

The following easy remedy to coun teract the effects of frost on tender ve getables, has been communicated by a gentleman who has tried the experi ment. The method he takes is to wa ter the vegetables on a frosty morning before the sun shines upon them; for it is to be remembered, that it is the sun which completes their destruction, and not the frost itself. [Lon. paper.

GREEN ROOM INTELLIGENCE.

Preparations are making in several parts of the Union to open the Theatri cal campaign. The times are not aus picious, and from what can be collected there appears at present but little no velty to begin with. No singer of emi nence has arrived to supply the place of Philips, who is now in Ireland, but it said to have accepted a three years en gagement at Covent Garden. It is re mored that Sinclair, a vocalist of consi derable celebrity, is about emigrating to this country, and as the management of Drury Lane Theatre has devolved upon Elliston, it is not improbable that Kean may emigrate here also, as he has had some difficulties. Conway, a performer of merit, it is said, will also come out. Boston Theatre, under the management of Messrs. Powel and Dickinson, will shortly open with the old company. New-York Theatre, under the management of Messrs. Price and Simson, commenced its season, but was compelled to close in consequence of the fever.—Mr. and Mrs. Bartley have visited the Springs, and Lower Canada, and given readings and recitations with great success. Mr. I. Wallack is in New-York. The Philadelphia company, which is highly respectable in point of talent, under the management of Messrs. Warren and Wood, commenced on Monday evening last, somewhat earlier in consequence of the fever at Baltimore. The Theatres of Norfolk, Richmond, Charleston and Savannah, are under the management of Messrs. Gilfert and Graham, who have engaged a double company, and contemplate keeping two theatres open at the same time. The Theatres in Kentucky continue under the management of Mr. Drake. The western states are a proper field for young beginners. A very splendid Theatre is just finished at New-Orleans, and completed by a private citizen at the cost of $120,00. It contains four tier of boxes with balconies and ballustrades after the fashion of the Parisian Theatres. The scenery and wardrobe have been manufactured in France, and a French company for Tragedy and Opera, are engaged, together with an American company; the performances to be alternately in English and French, the whole under the management of Mr. Phillips of this city, who has part of the western company and others already engaged, and who expects recruits from England. New-Orleans from its situation and wealth, together with the customs and manners of the inhabitants, affords good prospects for the encouragement of the DRAMA.

SPANISH ETIQUETTE.

The Etiquette—or rules to be observed in the royal palaces—is necessary, writes Baron Bielfield, for keeping order at court. In Spain, it was carried to such lengths as to make martyrs of their Kings. Here is an instance; at which, in spite of the fatal consequences it produced, one cannot refrain from smiling—

Philip the Third being gravely seated—as Spaniards generally are—by a chimney where the fire maker of the court had kindled so great a quantity of wood that the Monarch was nearly suffocated with heat, his grandeur would not suffer him to rise from the chair; and the domestics could not presume to enter the apartment, because it was against the Etiquette. At length the Marquis de Potat appeared, and the King ordered him to damp the fires; but he excused himself; alleging, that he was forbidden by the Etiquette to perform such a function, for which the Duke D'Usseda ought to be called upon, as it was his business. The Duke was gone out; the fire burnt fiercer; and the king endured it rather than derogate from his dignity. But his blood was heated to such a degree, that an erysipelas broke out in his head the next day; which, being succeeded by a violent fever, carried him off in 1621, and in the twenty-fourth year of his age.

The palace was once on fire; a soldier, who knew the King's sister was in her apartment, and must inevitably have been consumed in a few moments by the flames, at the risk of his life, rushed in, and brought her highness safe out in his arms: but the Spanish Etiquette was here woefully broken into! The loyal soldier was brought to trial; and as it was impossible to deny that he had entered her apartment, the judges condemned him to die! The Spanish Princess, however, condescended, in consideration of the circumstances, to pardon the soldier, and very benevolently saved his life!!

When Charles the Second received the compliments of the grandees, who kissed hands on occasion of his ascending the throne, one in the excess of his zeal, ventured to use the word friend, in his compliments of condolance and felicitation. The grave young Monarch, starting from him, and swelling with authority, exclaimed—Los Reys no tienen sus Vassallos por Amigos, sino por Servidores: kings have not their vassals for friends, but for servants.—An elegant monarch lamented the hard fortune of kings, they could have no friend. Charles must have thought differently.

One more instance, not less extravagant than any of these. When Isabella mother of Phillip II. was ready to be delivered of him, she commanded that all the lights should be extinguished; that if the violence of her pain should occasion her face to change colour, no one might perceive it. And when the midwife said—madam, cry out, that will give you ease,—she answered in good Spanish—How dare you give me such advice! I would rather die than cry out.

After this, we may exclaim with our English Satirist—

'Spain gives us pride—which Spain to all the earth
May largely give, nor fear herself a death!'

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it has been recommended to the Mayor and Common Council of Alexandria, by the Clergy of the town, that a day be set apart as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer, for the various blessings we enjoy; and the Common Council concurring in this recommendation, have, by an order passed on the 30th day of September, 1819, appointed Thursday, the 7th day of October, to be observed as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer: I do, therefore, recommend to the citizens of this town, that the said 7th day of October, be religiously observed as a day of THANKSGIVING AND PRAYER, to Almighty God, for the blessings we enjoy, and that those blessings may be continued to us.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal, this 1st day of October, 1819.

Correct Information.

THE stock advertised for sale by the Mechanics' Bank as standing in our name, is not our property. Our stock note thereon has been continued, under heavy and disproportioned curtailments, ever since March 1818, for the use of the real owner, a respectable mechanic of this place, because he could not obtain leave, upon a transfer, to substitute his stock note for our's. We have no interest in said stock beyond the sum that will retire the said stock note, and we do not think it proper to advance more money than we have done for curtailments.

Valuable Land for Sale.

PURSUANT to a decree of the Superior court of chancery for the district of Fredericksburg in Virginia, the undersigned commissioners will proceed to sell at public auction, upon a credit of one, two, and three years, at Middleburg, in the county of Loudon, on Thursday the 18th day of November next,

4000 Acres of Land, lying in the neighborhood of Middleburg.—The whole land is of that quality termed plaister land, and susceptible of high improvement by the use of it. The whole will be laid out into small tracts, of from two to three hundred acres each, and sold in separate tracts to suit purchasers. The whole is well watered, and no country is more healthy. Captain Pickett, who lives near the land, and who is employed to make a survey of it; and Mr. Sommers, who is the agent for the collection of the rents, will shew the land to those who may be inclined to purchase. Bond and security, and a deed of trust upon each tract, will be required of the purchaser.

JOHN HOPKINS

Hill and Dale, April 20.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensels and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be governed by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment. may 25

Was Committed,

TO the jail for the county of Alexandria on the 3d inst. as a runaway, a negro man called BEN HENDERSON, supposed to be the property of George Thornton, of King George county. The said negro is about 50 years of age; 5 feet 6 inches high; bald head; and a shoemaker by trade. The owner is desired to come prove property, pay charges, and take him away, otherwise he will be disposed of as the law directs.

100 Dollars Reward.

RAN away on the 28th of April, from the farm of the subscriber, in Dogue Neck, Fairfax Co. Virginia, negro HARRY, aged about twenty three years, about five feet ten inches high, very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly: had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth. I have every reason to believe that he is endeavoring to pass for a free man, and as such went off in some of the bay craft during the late fishing season. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. I will give twenty dollars, if taken in the county of Fairfax, or district of Columbia; if beyond that distance, the above reward, provided he is secured in jail so that I get him again.

100 Dollars Reward.

I WILL give the above reward to any person who will return to my possession, negro LAWRENCE, who assumes the sirname of FENWICK. This fellow left my farm, on the Wicomico river, in Charles county, Md. on the 6th July, in consequence of his own outrageous conduct towards my overseer. He is a negro of a fine erect figure, good features, a smooth black skin, rather above the middle stature, of a youthful appearance for one of thirty years of age, and of great plausibility and natural smartness. His ears grow remarkably close to his head, and on the inside of his lower lip he has a white mark or spot. I purchased him 4 years ago of the estate of Mrs. P. H. Courts, of this county. I am led (by circumstances which have come to my knowledge since he absconded,) to believe that he will endeavor to make his way to King George county, Va.; should he not take this route, he will probably be met with in the District of Columbia, or in the upper counties of this state, on his way to Pennsylvania. I apprehend he will change his name, and if committed to jail, refuse to state to whom he belongs, as the misconduct which preceded his departure, & his absconding, have all appeared since to have been premeditated. He took all his clothes with him, of which he had a large number; among them—a new bear-skin over-coat, a long close-bodied blue coat, a pair of striped jean pantaloons, one or more white waistcoats, besides many articles of coarse cloathing; these, however, he will probably exchange, or sell them for cash to defray his travelling expenses.

I will give the above reward to any person who will bring him home to me, or FIFTY DOLLARS if confined in jail, and notice given me, so that I recover him.—Should he be taken out of the state, I will also pay all reasonable costs and charges which may attend the bringing him home.

PROSPECTUS

Of a new periodical work to be published in the city of Washington, entitled the Washington Theological REPERTORY.

EDITORS. { Rev. WM HAWLEY, Washington, Rev. WM. H. WILMER, Alexandria, Rev. OLIVER NORRIS, Alexandria, Rev REUEL KEITH, Georgetown.

Assisted by several other literary gentlemen of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

IF any apology were necessary for this undertaking, it may be found in the fact, that there is no publication on a similar plan, in all that section of our country lying south of New-York, and but one in the whole of the United States. It has been matter of equal surprize and regret, that the Episcopal Church should be so far behind other Christian denominations, in similar efforts to disseminate the principles of religion and piety. At a period like the present, when the Lord is preparing his way on earth, by the most remarkable efforts of human agency, and the most wonderful operations of his providence and grace—when we perceive in every part of Christendom, a praise-worthy emulation to share in the glorious work of filling the earth with the knowledge of the only true God, and his Son Jesus Christ; it would seem criminal for any to withhold their exertions, however feeble, in the great enterprize of human happiness and salvation. The editors have, therefore, felt it their duty to make this humble effort to supply this acknowledged deficiency on the part of the church in this section of the country, and to bear their share in the common exertions of Christians to promote the Redeemer's Kingdom. And having obtained the services of a gentleman, in whose talents and principles they have confidence, whose time will be wholly devoted to the superintendence of the work, they feel encouraged to solicit the patronage of the public.

The publecation will be conducted under the immediate inspection and control of the above named editors, who will form a committee to review every article intended for publication. The principles upon which it will be conducted are those of the bible, as illustrated in the articles, Liturgy and Homilies of the Protestant Episcopal Church. As members of this church the editors will feel bound to support the Apostolical character of her institutions, the pious tendency of her rites and ceremonies, and the evangelical nature of her doctrines. But in these, and all other discussions, they hope never to loose sight of that great law of charity which teaches us to "preserve the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace."

Acting upon those catholic principles, so long and so successively pursued by "The Christian Observer," their chief object will be to inculcate sound theological knowledge, and to delineate and recommend pure and vital religion. They trust therefore, that while the members of every Christian denomination may find something edifying and instructive, none will discover any just cause for offence in the pages of this work. General subjects of biblical criticism, practical illustrations of scriptural truth, the biography of illustrious persons, evidences of the truth of revelation, essays on the history and polity of the church, reviews of interesting publications, religious, literary and philosophical intelligence—in short, whatever is connected with the promotion of religion, humanity and literature, will find a place in this repository.

The testimony of experience supersedes the necessity of dwelling on the advantages of a periodical publication on the plan proposed. Its obvious tendency will be to render the various departments of religious knowledge more easy and accessible, and give a more ready currency and wider circulation, to those great truths which involve the present welfare and future destiny of man.

It will tend powerfully to stimulate the exertions of the editors, and console them under the difficulties attendant on the prosecution of this work, amidst many other avocations, should it prove the means under the blessing of God, of enriching any of its readers with the saving knowledge of Christ, and prepare them for a participation in the felicity and glory of his heavenly kingdom. With this hope they commit it into his hands, and confidently solicit their brethren of the clergy and laity to assist them in carrying into effect the objects of the undertaking.

TERMS OF THE WORK.

A volume of the Repertory shall consist of twelve numbers, of which one shall be published on the first day of every month, containing thirty-two large octavo pages, stitched in blue, and attended with a table of contents.

The paper used in the work shall be good, and the typography executed with the greatest care.

The price of a volume is two dollars, payable in advance; to such as omit the advance, two dollars and fifty cents.

It is designed to enlarge the size of the work, without increasing the price, as soon as one thousand subscribers shall be obtained.

Communications and remittances may be directed to any of the editors, post paid.

Any person becoming responsible for five subscribers, shall receive a sixth copy gratis.

The first number may be expected in the month of July. June 26
